

WHAT'S HAPPENING

On Nov. 20, media reports showed police using water cannons and tear gas against protesters at Standing Rock. The Universalist Unitarian Church is hosting a benefit for the Standing Rock Sioux and the NoDAPL Water Protectors. Event organizer Christina Sasser says, "This event will create a sacred and prayerful container for people in the community to gather in solidarity with the water protectors at Standing Rock." A yoga and sound healing session will be hosted by Maia Shmueli and Meghan Quinn and live music is also scheduled for the event. A silent auction will be held and snacks by Blue Lotus Chai and Coconut Bliss will be available.

Circle For Water runs 6 to 10 pm on Saturday, Nov. 26 at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 1685 W. 13th Ave.; $10-$100 sug. don.
