Sweet Potato is a beautiful, shy girl who enjoys the company of other cats. She is great friends with her roommate Gonzo and would love to go home with him if there are no other cats already at home. Sweet Potato looks forward to her daily chicken treats and basking in the sunny rays on her favorite cat tree. If you are interested in meeting this cute, little girl, come meet her today, she is often out and about around noon at treat-time.

Chloe and Zoey are very sweet and affectionate young sisters. The two were found wandering the streets together and that time of hardship forged a strong bond between them. We're unsure how they will do around other animals, but they both enjoy hanging out with humans big and small. Chloe and Zoey are looking for a loving family that will give them the attention they deserve and warm place to take a nap... or lots and lots of naps.
