Baker is in need of a new home! He is about 9 years old and is very devoted to his person. He was adopted a year ago, but is losing his home soon. He needs a foster or forever home asap. He's only 6 lbs. and friendly with people. He would do best as a companion in a home without other dogs or with a female dog about his size. His ideal home would be with an older person who wants a companion dog and is patient with his interaction with other animals. For now he really needs a foster home first. He is a very sweet boy and deserves a forever home. Can someone help?
