

When assimilating truly American musical styles like '50s-era rock, funk and surf music, as well as Jamaican ska, who better to do so than — the Russians? Since the mid-'90s, Russian-American L.A. act Red Elvises (now known as Igor & The Red Elvises after the departure of long-time bassist known only as Oleg Bernov) have developed this bathtub brew of styles into a fun and energetic punk rock buzz. You never know what you might see or hear at a Red Elvises' show: maybe an appearance from the traditional Russian instrument called the Balalaika, or even a traditional Russian cover of Lady Gaga's pop hit "Bad Romance." Just in time for the return of Red Scare: The Sequel in national political discourse, Secret Hippy Presents Igor & The Red Elvises alongside Eugene's Missing Links 10 pm Wednesday, May 31, at Luckey's; $10 advance, $12 door, 21-plus. — Will Kennedy
