Soft Land-ing

The Oregon Country Fair respectfully owns and intentionally stewards the land on which the event is hosted. We emphasize reuse through our durable silverware program and every food booth uses compostable serving ware. Be part of the solution: don't bring disposables, and pack-it-in, pack-it-out!

It Takes a Village

Community Village is dedicated to education, information access and networking for progressive social change. We work to create a Village Vision of love, peace, trust, justice, cooperation, equality and social service. Participate in a multitude of workshops, listen to a speaker or take in a tune on the Village Stage.

Good Energy

Fairgoers of all ages can learn about energy and innovative applied technologies in Energy Park. Individuals, non-profits and commercial organizations are here to share a wide range of expertise, knowledge and materials.

Time Travel

Visit Archaeology Park and travel back in time with activities that have occurred on this land for more than 11,000 years. Through workshops and presentations, learn about the native Kalapuya, their history and their world from the past through the present.

Xplore Xavanadu

Officially in its third year, Xavanadu offers earthly delights, in and out of the shade of magnificent oak trees. There are large art installations to engage and entertain you. Get moving on the beautiful wood floor of the Dance Pavilion and enjoy Swing, Contra, African and more. Next up: The Flow Zone, where you can learn hula hooping, acroyoga, juggling, poi, and more. Or check out the WorkIt Shop, dedicated to exploring movement and dance with classes in Hip-Hop, Belly Dance, Yoga, Contact Improv, Consent, Bollywood, Modern & Body Awareness and Movement. The Stewardship will engage you with the Fair's efforts to care for the site and the earth. The Stewardship Passport will tour you all around the Fair site and when completed you can win fun prizes, including tickets to next year's Fair! Need a break? Check out the Visionary Lounge, a magical world under a tree. Or how about relaxing around the baby grand piano, smack in the center of things? Xavanadu is a magnificent new place for us to play, learn, explore, and kick back.
