

If you abide like The Dude, then get out your Donny costumes (or urns) and head over to the David Minor Theater this Friday, June 9 at 6:45 pm. The theater is having its 9th Big Lebowski party, complete with white Russians (half off for those in costume)! The 1998 cult classic, directed by the Coen brothers, is best known for its convoluted crime plot, apathetic main character and extreme quotability. In the film, Jeffery Lebowski, aka "The Dude," (Played by Jeff Bridges) finds himself stuck in the middle of a mystery not of his own making after his rug is stolen and his identity mistaken for that of a millionaire of the same name. In order to get his rug replaced, The Dude ends up at the center of a grand conspiracy that involves kidnapping, porn peddlers and an unwitting insemination. It's notable for its soundtrack, strong female characters and utter, convoluted nonsense. If you'd like to see a rug that really pulls a room together, this is a great chance to check it out with other lovers of the Dude who abides.

The Big Lebowski Party is Friday, June 9 at 6:45 pm at the David Minor Theater, 180 E. 5th Ave. $6 advance, $7 that night.
