

Cottage Grove is hosting its Bohemia Mining Days Festival during the latter half of this week. The festival includes four days of family-friendly activities, live music, food, vendors and other events all in celebration of Cottage Grove's history. According to the festival's website, the Bohemia Mining Days Festival was conceived in 1959 when the "town went all out to celebrate the centennial of Oregon statehood." It's been happening every year since. Along with the common festival activities you would expect, Bohemia Mining Days offers more out-of-the-ordinary-for-city-folk activities like mechanical bull riding, historical talks, gold mining seminars and a quilt show as well as a 5K run. The sheer amount of different activities makes this one festival the whole family will enjoy, not to mention both admission and parking are free.

Bohemia Mining Days Festival takes place 3-10 pm Thursday, July 13, 2-10:30 pm Friday, July 14, 11 am-10 pm Saturday, July 15, and noon-5 pm Sunday, July 16. The main festival locations are at Coiner Park (100 S. 10th Street) and Bohemia Park (S. 10th Street) in Cottage Grove. Admission and parking are FREE. — Meerah Powell
