On Friday, July 28, The Brewstation and Coast Fork Feed Store in Cottage Grove are hosting Warehouse Walk: A benefit for adolescent mental health services through South Lane Mental Health. Coast Fork Feed Store will be transformed into an art gallery showcasing art from clients and staff members of South Lane Mental Health, a nonprofit organization that provided mental health services to 1,500 Cottage Grove area adults and children just last year, according to its website. Some of the art will be available for sale, and funds will go toward mental health support. The Brewstation's outdoor patio next door will host live "folk-fueled fungrass tunes of Eugene-based Gumbo Groove, followed by the indie rock of Cottage Grove's own Flies with Honey," according to a press release. The Brewstation will also donate $1 from every pint of beer or cider purchased to South Lane Mental Health. The Warehouse Walk will take place during Cottage Grove's Downtown Art Walk for a chance to make it a whole art-filled evening.

Warehouse Walk: A benefit for adolescent mental health services through South Lane Mental Health starts at 6 pm on Friday, July 28, at Coast Fork Feed Store and The Brewstation (both at 106 S. Sixth Street, Cottage Grove). People under 21 are welcome at The Brewstation until 8:30 pm. The event is FREE. — Meerah Powell
