Java is a sweet and energetic young lady. She loves to run and play and especially loves going on walks. Java has a hard time with other animals and kids, but not to worry, she has a lot of love to give. Since Java is on the young side, she still has some learning to do, and would love to get some training in so she can be the best dog she can be. She is looking for a home where she can get daily exercise and lots of attention, as well as a home where folks are patient while she learns. After all that, Java is happy return the favor with lots of snuggles.
