

The 9th Annual Great Willamette Clean Up is this Saturday from 8 am to 2 pm in various locations in Eugene and Springfield. The clean up is a family-friendly event taking place up and down the Willamette River from Oakridge to Portland. The event welcomes both land and water clean up volunteers. Those bringing a boat should register in advance. "This project highlights water quality issues while directly connecting people through a common goal to improve the Willamette River's health," says Willamette River South Valley Advocate Michelle Emmons in an email to EW. After participating in the clean up, Ninkasi is hosting a Volunteer Thank You Party at their Tasting Room (272 Van Buren Street) from 1-3 pm. There will be free Track Town Pizza as well as beverages from Mountain Rose Herbs, Townshend's and Ninkasi. For information on how to get involved with the clean up, to register and to view a full list of specific clean up locations, visit willametteriverkeeper.org. — Meerah Powell
