

Siri Vik is one of Eugene's musical treasures. Vik was born and raised in Eugene and currently teaches voice lessons at Lane Community College. Vik grew up singing opera, she told EW in a past story (‘‘Femme Diversifi  e,’’ April 27), but as she grew older she fell into a more varied collection of genres from jazz to cabaret and singer-songwriter to alternative. But, for an upcoming performance at The Shedd, Vik is returning to her classical roots. In her show, called ‘‘Sure On This Shining Night,’’ Vik will be performing works by American composers Samuel Barber and Aaron Copland; she'll be accompanied by conductor Robert Ashens and pianist Nathalie Fortin. Catch Siri Vik 7:30 pm Thursday, Nov. 9, at The Shedd's Jaqua Concert Hall. Tickets range from $28-$36 with discounts available. — Meerah Powell
