No Shame Workshop: Short-form theatre & improv! 7:30pm,

It's been two months since the "Unite the Right" rally in Charlottesville, Virginia, rocked the nation. The Wayne Morse Law Fellows at the UO's Knight Law Center have organized a lecture that reflects on Charlottesville and how white supremacy still affects us here. The After Charlottesville: Confronting White Supremacy and White Nationalism as Lawyers and Leaders lecture features nationally renowned speaker Eric K. Ward. Ward is the executive director of the Western States Center in Portland and also works with the Ford Foundation and the Atlantic Philanthropies. Ward will be discussing the agenda of the "so-called Alt-Right" and what students, lawyers, campus and community members can do to confront white supremacy. After Charlottesville is noon Monday, Nov. 20, at the Knight Law School (1620 Agate Street, rm. 110). It's FREE. — Meerah Powell
