Mason

Looking for a sweetheart of a dog that will give love for years to come? My name is Mason and I would be an awesome choice! I am active, playful and affectionate and I would thrive in a home with older children. I want to be your only pet and would do best with no other dogs or cats.

Lady

This 20-year-old sound Arabian mare is sweet and outgoing, and would make a wonderful sure-footed trail horse. She's only green broke, but has never tried to buck or rear under saddle. She most definitely does not show her age.

Maya

She's active, fun loving, and an extreme snuggle-bug. Currently in foster care, she can jump the highest and can run for the longest (and the fastest). Her ball catching skills are amazing. Maya is a big fan of people and makes friends wherever she goes. She prefers to be the only furry family member in her new home, but play dates with other dogs could be fun with slow introductions

Olive and Oprah

Sisters who have been recently surrendered to escape domestic violence. It was heartbreaking for their hu-mom to say goodbye, but she did so knowing they would be safe and well cared for until a new family could be found. These two plus-size gals have hearts to match their physique. Both are very affectionate, love to cuddle, appreciate a good brushing, and thoroughly enjoy the company of people. Must be adopted together.
