

Curious about Eugene's new rain gardens?

These plant-filled, curbside swales are part of many neighborhood construction projects. They reduce flooding, filter pollution and provide wildlife habitat.

You can help keep them functioning by not disturbing the plants, and by keeping pet waste and litter out.

We Be PEOPLE

“American Identity in the Age of Trump”

George Packer is a staff writer for The New Yorker, and author of The Unwinding: An Inner History of the New America. In Packer's view, “The Trump Presidency is a symptom of the fracturing in American society that goes back years and runs deeper than economics and politics to the meaning of being an American. None of the currently available narratives of national identity point a way out of our failure. Is there another way to think of ourselves as Americans?”
