

We've still got a good chunk of winter left to go, but here's a chance to pretend you're on a beach, in the sun, lounging under some palm trees. The Hawaiian musical duo Kupaoa will perform a free concert at 7:30 pm in the Redwood Auditorium in the EMU on UO Campus. Kupaoa is composed of husband and wife Kellen and Lihau Paik. They have been performing together for about a decade, according to their website. Members of the University's Hawai'i Club and Kalapu Pasifika will host the concert. The show will also include hula dancers from Eugene's local hula school — Na Pua O Hawai'i Nei. The performance is put together by organizers of Aloha Friday — a gathering of Hawaiian music, art, food and dance every third Friday of each month at Whirled Pies (199 W. 8th Avenue) — so if you miss this show and still want to enjoy the beauty of Hawaiian culture, make sure to check out that event as well. — Meerah Powell
