

Forget Genesis and his solo work — Phil Collins truly peaked when he wrote the soundtrack to Disney's Tarzan. Now you have a chance to see Children's Repertory of Oregon Workshops (CROW) production of the classic story of man's question of whether he belongs with the apes or humans. CROW isn't your typical children's theater, according to Melanie Heard, the group's artistic director. She says the cast — whose ages range from 4 to early 20s— have studied vocals for a long time so the audience can expect tight harmonies. That means they'll do justice to classic songs from the soundtrack, like "Two Worlds," "Thrashin' the Camp" and "You'll Be in My Heart." Heard says, "You'll forget they're children." The CROW production will also feature Springfield-based Revelers Aerial Works, who will swing through vines on stage as gorillas and tree frogs, transforming the stage into a jungle.

CROW Presents: Disney's Tarzan Stage Musical runs 7 pm April 13, 2 and 7 pm April 14, and 7 pm April 15 at Florence Events Center (715 Quince St. in Florence). Tickets are $8-$18. — Henry Houston
