

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Tom Petty was one of those few rock stars who — unlike many of us — showed that even the losers get lucky sometimes. The PettyBreakers is a Tom Petty tribute band that will bring all of Petty's great songs while maintaining the economical guitar solos of Mike Campbell, and the band will take the stage Friday, July 6 at the Art and the Vineyard, the principal fundraiser for the Maude Kerns Art Center. That's just one of the acts that fills the three-day event. In addition to music, the festival will offer a diverse food court, art for sale and some of Oregon's finest wineries. The event raises money for the Maude Kens so they can continue to offer year-round exhibitions and art classes for children, teens and adults in all forms of media. The fundraising event follows an explosive Fourth of July fireworks presentation. Art and the Vineyard is presented by Maude Kerns Art Center and The Active 20-30 Club of Eugene. The three-day event runs 11 am to 9:30 pm Friday, July 6, and Saturday, July 7, and 11 am to 5 pm Sunday, July 8. Tickets range from — Henry Houston
