OUT OF THE WAY

GENTRIFICATION IN FRANCISVILLE, NORTH PHILLY

Ruby Sanders, her grandson Speedy, another young man from the neighborhood, Yusuf, and several other neighbors tell us about how rich white people moving to their neighborhood is transforming their community. They also explain how gentrification is part of all the racist violence their community has been suffering throughout history. From the so called "war on drugs" to police brutality and from mass incarceration to public schools being shut down, this community is being pushed "Out of the Way".

Short Film Screening: 7 YEARS OF SELF GOVERNANCE IN CHERAN, MICHOACAN / "SOMOS UN CHINGO Y SEREMOS MAS"

Friday October 19 6pm - 9pm McKenzie 221

In May 2018 the indigenous Purépecha municipality of Cherán Michoacán named its third council of elders to the democratically elected communal government of their community, with women stepping up, and the community celebrating 7 years of the uprising against what they all call today: The narco government.
