

THE Best OF Eugene

2018-2019

It's that time of year — Best Of Eugene! You've done it again, readers. You've picked your favorite politicians, eateries, hairdressers, advocates and more. And, this year you also got the chance to test out STAR (Score Then Automatic Runoff) voting. As in the voting rounds, we're splitting Best Of into two separate issues. This week we're covering Civics and Eats, so read on to see whom you crowned as winners. And come back next week for Best of Live Action and Spending.

Best Rabblouser

1. Frog
2. Lefty
3. Tim Lewis

Not many rabblousers can say they fought the law and won like good ol' Frog (David Miller). The city of Eugene tried to kick him off the streets with their pesky laws that prohibited selling anything other than food, beverages, balloons and flowers. The law would've prevented him from selling the funniest books the world has ever seen. That didn't stop him and his case went all the way to the Oregon Supreme Court. It's a good thing, too, because can you imagine a world without Frog? — Henry Houston
