HEALTH CARE

White Bird Clinic
Eugene, Oregon

Help Us
Help All of Us!

Too many community members face a profound struggle to survive each day. For almost 50 years, White Bird has been Eugene's homegrown solution. White Bird is growing in response to community need: our crisis and dental programs are increasing their capacity, and we're planning an urgent care clinic. We've expanded our school-based mental health program and CAHOOTS is adding 24/7 service in unincorporated Lane County.

We hope you will consider contributing however you are able, whether a gift of funds or volunteering your time. Together, our words and deeds will solidify the culture of compassion that we hope to see in the world.
