

VISUAL ARTS WEEK

Mayor's Art Show

Friday, August 2 – Saturday, August 31

Tuesday-Friday, 12 - 5 pm,

Saturdays 11 am - 3 pm

Maurie Jacobs Community Room at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts

The Mayor's Art Show is part of a larger celebration of contemporary visual art, artists and the City's public spaces. Art is shared interaction, cultural exchange, and lodges in the very heart of what makes us grateful to live here.

Eugene Biennial Award Winners - One Year Later

Thursday, July 31–Saturday, August 31

Karin Clarke Gallery

Karin Clarke Gallery presents a group show giving the winners of last year's Eugene Biennial an opportunity to exhibit more of their recent work.

Salon des Refusés

Friday, August 2 – Friday, August 30

Everyday 12 - 6 pm

New Zone Gallery

In the spirit of celebrating the visual arts and artists, those who are not selected by the jury for the Mayor's Art Show will have the opportunity to participate in the Salon des Refusés, extending exhibition opportunities to artists and furthering the arts in our community.

BRIDGE Exhibitions

Friday, August 2 – Saturday, August 31

5th & Oak Neighborhood

BRIDGE Exhibitions presents temporary, innovative contemporary art installations in Eugene's publicly accessible spaces. These works highlight area artists and arts organizations that creatively contribute to the current discourse in our community and beyond.

First Friday ArtWalk

Friday, August 2, 5:30 - 8 pm

Guided tour starts at FOOD for Lane County's Dining Room (270 West Eighth Ave)

The First Friday ArtWalk kicks off Visual Arts Week, highlighting the 20x21EUG Mural Project, Mayor's Art Show, BRIDGE Exhibitions, Salon des Refusés and more. Follow along the guided tour to hear from featured artists or explore the many participating galleries and venues on your own. Kesey Square features Portland-based instrumental band Oleada and the Artist Marketplace.
