

Harbor Community Club Held Meeting Friday

Mrs. Jessie Judkins presided at the March meeting of the Harbor community club, Friday at the Grange hall. Mrs. Marie Hempel joined the club. Mrs. Missouri Morgan was re-instated as secretary after an absence of several months. During her absence Mrs. Pauline Palladay filled the post.

It was announced that more stocks were needed for the afgans that the club is making, to be sent to veterans hospitals.

Following the business meeting a recreational hour was in charge of Mrs. Viva Johnson and Mrs. Bernice Newton.

Refreshments of fruit pudding and whipped cream, with coffee, were served at tables attractively decorated with Mexican linen and French nosegays in imported vases. Hostesses for the afternoon: Mrs. Viola Hanscom, Mrs. Amanda Garvin, Mrs. Edna Woodruff and Mrs. Judy Crockett. Guests were Mrs. Marian Hanscom and Mrs. Laura Heiberger.

Birthday Club Honors Mrs. Ellen Johnson

Mrs. Helen Fisher was hostess Friday to a party for Mrs. Ellen Johnson, member of the Birthday

Club. Organized many years ago this club has always kept 13 members and as each member has a birthday, she is given a party. The party was given at the home of Mrs. Hassett. Presents were Violet Cleveland, Dolly Brainard, Thora Gustafson, Ina DeMoss, Manilla Hassett, Aggie Bickner, Aggie Darger, Marie Hoar, Helen Fisher, Jessie Becker, Margaret Tisdale and guest of honor, Ellen Johnson. The afternoon was spent playing pinochle with high prize going to Violet Cleveland, and booby prize to Marie Hoar. Refreshments were served by Helen Fisher.
