

Raymond Reekman Initiated On Birthday

Group of the younger crowd gathered at the home of Ina and Helen Payne Tuesday evening when they surprised Raymond Reekman upon his entering the house, the occasion being a party in honor of his 16th birthday. He had been invited to Brookings by Gene Reiling, but instead, took him to the home.

Games and stunts made the party pass quickly, with refreshments of ice cream and cake being served. The honored guest received many presents from his friends.

Present were Raymond Reekman, Helen and Ina Payne, Barbara Bates, Barbara Stoller, Irvin Johnston, Mary Lou Hill, Ellis Huffman, Merlie Baumgardner, Bettie Goldizen, Diane Bell, Donnie Raymond, Junior Lader, Gene Reiling, Vernon Skett, Lawrence Wright, Carl Reekman, Ethel Pierce, Doyle Schuch, Donald Young, Donald Me, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Essand Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Me.

Rebekah Lodge Initiates Three

Three candidates, Brita Dahlman, Jessie Judkins and Norma Holland, were initiated into the Rebekah lodge, Tuesday evening. The drill team presented a beautiful drill. Those participating in the drill were Doris Reeman, Beth Simon, Agda Bickerman, Clarice Orton, Adela Basch, Agnes Darger, June Lively, Aline Freeman, Norman Myers, Rosallah Sullivan. Bertha Perry is captain of the team.

Plans for the coming district convention were discussed, with plans for the banquet, under the firmanship of Grace Zirbel being made. A wedding present of a bed-side lamp, was given to Agda Bickner, recent bride. Mrs. Tora Gustafson, "Good of Order" chairman, presented an interesting guessing contest, which was won by Pauline Freeman. Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served by Mrs. Lucian Harvey, Hulda Erdner and Kathryn Reekman.

Card Party Mecca for Large Crowd

The card party, given by the Rebekah Social club, April 2, attracted a large crowd which enjoyed the evening of pinochle. Helen Fisher received high prize while mens high went to Leslie Miller; ladies low went to Adela Hassett and mens low to George Hassett. Ruth Wolfe was holder of the traveling pinochle prize at end of play.

The last in this series of card parties will be held Tuesday, April 16, at the Odd Fellows hall. Games will start at 8 p. m.
