Fishing Gossip

By J. G. Gallagher

Now that the fishing season is opened it seems too bad that more of us are not getting the benefits of the sport, which is so well mentioned in the following, written by Edgar Guest:

"A feller isn't thinking mean, out fisihin'; his thoughts are mostly good and clean, out fishin'; he doesn't knock his fellowmen, or harbor any grudges then; a feller's glad to be a friend, out fishin'; a helpin' hand he'll alway lend, out fishin'; the brotherhood of rod and line, an' sky an' stream, is always fine; men come close to God's design, out fishin'. A feller gets a chance to dream, out fishin'; he learns the beauty of lake and stream, out fishin'; and the man wash his soul in air that isn't foul with selfish care, an' relish pain and simple fare, out fishin'."

Now is time for all good men to lay aside the lily hoe occasionally and pick up the rod and reel.

Reports are coming to me of good catches of big trout in the Chetco and Winchuck. Several have reported seeing salmon in the Chetco—none, however, have tried fishing for them so far.
