Pine Cone Theatre Books Good Shows

The Pine Cone Theatre brings Gary Cooper and Merle Oberon in a great western comedy, "The Cowboy and the Lady," to Brookings, Friday and Saturday. Gary Cooper, as a cowboy enters a rodeo in Florida. Merle Oberon, as a wealthy debutante, is looking for a man who wants he for herself more than he does for her money. Her two maids date out two of Gary's side-kicks, who in turn wants the maids to bring a blind date for Gary.

Merle, who attended the rodeo that afternoon, has her eye on Gary, and wants to meet him. Finding out that the two maids hold the key to the situation, she dresses like a maid and goes with them as the blind date. What happens after Gary finds out that she is a gal with money makes up the rest of this hilarious comedy.

The Pirate of Pirates, "Capt. Kidd," portrayed by that great character actor, who made Capt. Bligh live in "Mutiny on the Bounty," Charles Laughton, also comes to the Pine Cone, Sunday and Monday. The romantic role is ably handled by Randolph Scott who defends the heroine who falls into the hands of Capt. Kidd as the sole witness to his piratical attacks on one of His Majesty's ships. John Carradine plays the part of one of Kidd's henchmen. Matinee will be held at 2:00 p. m, Sunday.

A superb comedy, "The Talk of the Town," starring Jean Arthur, Cary Grant, and Ronald Coleman, playing Wednesday and Thursday, May 15 and 16, finishes out an excellent picture week week. This picture was considered one of the best comedies of the year, a few seasons ago.

Special Matinee Announced

Pine Cone Theatre announces a special matinee at 2 o'clock, for the Azalea Festival, Saturday, May 25. Playing will be "Barbary Coast," starring Joe McRae. The regular Sunday matinees wil continue as scheduled.

Misunderstnading Arises About "Queen Funds"

Confusion has entered into the selling of the Queen Contest votes by high school students. This money, belongs to the P.-T. A., and will be used toward improvement of the schools, since it is that organization which sponsors this contest.

Money to finance the festival is being raised by popular subscription from business firms and individuals.

Mrs. Rausch, aiding in the contest for P.-T. A., told the Pilot that some of this money would be used to buy equipment for a home economics room at the high school.

Just before going to press, it was learned that Carol Lee Crockett, who had withdrawn her name earlier, now wishes it put back on the list.
