

Study of Calendar Shows Oddities

A study of the calendar for the next twelve months offers some interesting facts. In that period three months commence on Saturday, two each on Monday and Tuesday and one each on Wednesday and Sunday. No months begin or either Thursday or Friday. Three months end on Friday and Wednesday; two on Thursday and Monday and one on Saturday. Peruse the calendar for the next 12 months:

"Azalea Queen"

So you want a Queen,
That's very gay;
And one that's beautiful,
In many a way;
Beautiful on the inside,
As well as on the out;
And really gives a care,
Of this old world,
Around about.
Well, now take this girl,
That's Native Born;
She ought to be good,
For quite a score;
She's not wild nor witty,
Nor full of lust;
She's just good-hearted,
And full of common sense stuff;
She's ever so mild,
About what life can bring;
Like the wild Azaleas,
In the spring;
She even says,
She really swoons;
When the Azaleas
Are in full bloom;
Then she says: "A tear drop
Is not shy
When those beautiful Azaleas
Begin to wilt and die;"
And then she'll
Go on to say
"What is life
Without these days?"
Now if you think
She really has it—
She's STUFF
To make a Queen
Buy your votes for
Miss June Hassett
And then you'll Really have a Queen.
—Willard A. Ellis.

and A. E. Sandbo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gelino and Mrs. Missouri Morgan were obligated in first two degrees and two new applications were received. It was voted to rent the hall for use of election, May 17, and in consequence Grange meeting will not take up until 8:30, to allow the counting board time to move their books to kitchen. It was announced by the lecturer that there would be no program at the next meeting due to the late start, but that the home economics committee will be in charge of the meeting on June 7, and the annual memorial program will be on June 7.

A wedding present of a lace table cloth was presented Mrs. Marie Hempel, a nee who was married last fall who returned here but a few weeks ago from Texas.
