

Rebekahs Held Convention Here

(Too late for last week)

The annual convention of the Rebekah lodges of district No. 31, was held May 28 at the Odd Fellows hall, with president of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Marian Wilson, of Bandon, and some of her assembly officers, in attendance. The district is comprised of the Gold Beach Rebekah lodge and Topaz Rebekah lodge, and there were over eighty members in attendance.

After the regular opening in the afternoon by the Brookings lodge officers, the convention officers were seated by a team of Gold Beach members who presented each officer with a corsage. Mrs. Olive Anderson of Topaz lodge was chairman; Mrs. Etta Gowdy of Gold Beach, vice-chairman and Mrs. Beth Simon of Topaz, secretary. Different parts of the lodge work were exemplified with a school of instruction and question box being an interesting part of the afternoon. The officers for the convention to be held at Gold Beach next year are headed by Mrs. Etta Gowdy of Gold Beach, as chairman, and Mrs. Bertha Whirry of Topaz, vice-chairman. The new officers were seated by the Gold Beach team in an attractive drill.

A banquet was served at 6:30 to the group, with a regular meeting of Topaz lodge taking up at 8:00 o'clock. During the meeting the following officers were elected to head the local lodge for the next six months: Noble Grand, Gertrude Cole; vice-grand, Ethel Frazier; recording secretary, Beth Simon and treasurer, Agda Bickner.

Mrs. Lily Coffman, Miss Mildred Drake, Mrs. Dorothy Simpson, and Mrs. Madge Moore were initiated into the order during the meeting. Mrs. Wilson gave an interesting talk, presenting her goal for the year, after which the local lodge presented her with a gift of a redwood flower bowl in appreciation of her many years work for the order. A past noble grand's jewel was presented to Mrs. Olive Anderson by her lodge in appreciation of her being the inside guardian at the recent Rebekah Assembly at Medford.

Harbor Womens Club Met, Friday

The June meeting of the Harbor Community club was held Friday afternoon at the Grange hall, with Mabel McVay presiding. There were 22 present with Mrs. Bernadine Steele, Mrs. Polly Glendenin, Mrs. Elsie Brauch and Miss Anita Byrd as visitors.

It was voted to give $5 towards transportation expenses of the 4-H club member who wins the Chetco Grange scholarship to the summer school this month. The afghan which the members have been making blocks for, is now completed and ready to be sent to some veterans hospital.

During recreation hour, Mrs. Bess Miller and Mrs. Bertha Wood had some lively games which provoked much amusement. Following this, the hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. May Powell, Mrs. Jo Massett, Mrs. Emma Waldien and Mrs. Mina Calhon, served refreshments.

David Dryden Dies, Crescent City

David Dryden Jr., died Tuesday at Knapp Hospital, Crescent City, after a lingering illness. Born July 1, 1877, son of Mr.

and Mrs. David Dryden, he came to the Winchuck area in his early childhood. While still a young man, he went to southern California, where he later married Isabelle Rockwood of Monrovia, Calif. To this union were born three children: Willard of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Margaret Lang of San Diego and Mrs. Dorothy Sinclair of San Francisco, all of whom survive. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Effie Jones of Crescent City, and Mira Wilson of Albany, Ore., and four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, and Mrs. W. G. Hoagland, a niece. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Milton Tolman Dies At Vets Hospital

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Milton Tolman, former local resident, and son of Mrs. Frances Tolman of Harbor, at the veterans hospital, Walla Walla, Wash., on Sunday night. Members of the family immediately left for the funeral, which will be held at Tacoma where he will be buried at the national cemetery.

Born at Smith River, Aug. 26, 1902, he served in the army during the recent war, prior to which he was employed by the forest service. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tolman, he is survived by two brothers, Robert and Tom, and a married sister.

Travels From Washington Despite Rail Strike

Miss Fay L. Islaub, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hoffeldt. She is on vacation from the treasury department where she is employed.

Being one of the fortunate to travel during the recent road strike, she flew directly Washington to Medford—no chance of being put off at stop, but arriving without culty. The Hoffeldts met her at Medford.
