

Crescent City Takes Two Games During 4th Celebration

Medford Drops Games On 4th; Canyonville Dumped Sunday

By taking the game Sunday against Canyonville, Crescent City won the pennant for the first half of the season in the Southern Oregon league. Facing Palmer, a 19-year-old southpaw, Crescent City was forced to extend some effort in turning back the visitors who played errorless ball. Crescent City's four bobbles almost cost them the game, although two runs were napped at the plate by throw-ins from the outfield. Vernon Hanscam did this feat from centerfield.

The box score:
