Fishing Gossip

By J. J. Gallagher

The sea-going pros did it again—they knocked over 20 black snappers and two ling cod, trolling in the bay.

Other fishermen report taking plenty of giant cutthroat and native trout in the Chetco river.

Satellite Club Met With Mrs. Hazel Hendry

The Satellite club held its regular meeting at the home of Hazel Hendry, with Drea Goldizen presiding last week.

Lillian Wiederman was appointed delegate to meet with the Brookings-Harbor Chamber of Commerce, to organize an Azalea Festival association.

Plans were made to devise various ways of raising finances to be used in organizing an Eastern Star chapter here. Two new members joined: Mrs. Betty Burnbridge, a past worthy matron of Omaha, was a visitor. Entertainment was in charge of Agda Bickner.

The next regular meeting will be held Aug. 20, at the Agda Bickner home, across from the Community Church.

Club Sells Hydrangeas

Pine Cone Theatre Announces Show

Billed at the Pine Cone Theatre for the coming week are three hits, described by Norris Kemp as one of the best-balanced show weeks for some time.

Sunday and Monday, "Earl Carroll's Vanities," in which there's music you'll remember, pretty girls and dancing, the Broadway scene that made the old ravine of revelry famous, starring lovely and more glamorous Constance Moore, with dashing Dennis O'Keefe, with a brilliant supporting cast.

Preceding this show, on Friday and Saturday comes "Renegades," where the "red-blooded" girl rides with Dembrones—the West's most notorious outlaw band, in Columbia's technicolor western. Brookings is getting this picture ahead of most theatres in this area.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, the gayest and most exciting of "musical round-ups" is Republic's "Utah," latest starring vehicle of Roy Rogers, which is billed at the Pine Cone.

For Rogers' fans the picture offers entertainment of the high quality that has made him the country's No. 1 cowboy star. He rides Trigger, sings and outwits the villains with the breezy charm that has earned him the title of King of the Cowboys.

You get friendly, personal service at those new Chevron Gas Stations

Folks have always enjoyed the thoughtful, interested kind of service they receive at independent gas stations. But many people don't always know they are "home-owned." Well, as Chevron Gas Dealers, we're establishing our identity as independent businessmen in our community. That's the reason for the new Chevron Signs and the burgundy, cream and green paint jobs on our stations.

It's "only the best" for our customers—and that adds up to products like Chevron Supreme Gasoline and RPM Motor Oil. Our other services and accessories will be the same top grade, too.

We'll be glad to honor Standard of California's Chevron National Credit Cards. If you haven't applied for a Credit Card, drop in any time and we'll see that you get an application.

REMEMBER...the same products, the same service, the same folks to serve you
