

Musicals Top List The Pine Cone

Appearing in the starring role of the exotic figure skater and Vera Hrubá Ralston, in picture, next Wednesday, "The Pine Cone," reaches the peak of her glamorous career. Opposite her is Robert Livingston, the young star who scored recent triumphs in Republic's "The Sign of the Cross" and "Tito Guizar and Virginia Bruce."

The spectacular splendor of the settings, its rhythmic score and the sheer beauty of its action, "The Pine Cone" ranks as one of the most among the ice-musicals of screen history.

On Sunday and Monday, glamorous Rita Hayworth, scaling new heights, is sensational in Columbia's picture "The Sign of the Cross."

drama. Great as is her powerful dramatic portrayal, great, too, is this dancing Hayworth, singing torchy "Put the Blame on Mame!"
