from Massachusetts. He recently retired from the garage business at Los Angeles. His first entry into the automotive business was as a test driver for the old Loco- mobile Co., in 1904. He and Mrs. Hartwell were completing a long drive which took them several hundred miles south of Mexico City, and then circled the United States. They reported the heat extreme in crossing the country, and that their hottest ride ever, was coming down the Columbia gorge where metal parts inside the car were far too hot to touch.

Following the ideas started a few weeks ago by Earl Carson, Herbert Payne, Monday, took deliv- ery on some pamphlets for his bulb buyers to aid in culture of Croft lilies. While not as elabor- ate as those printed by Mr. Car- son, Mr. Payne's pamphlets are none-the-less complete.

Bob Davis, owner of the Nook Cafe, who leased the business to Mrs. C. I. Patrick, left late Sun- day for Portland and Vancouver, where he will spend a few days before returning to Brookings. Af- ter repairs to the building he will run his business at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hanks have as guests this month: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stanley of Portland, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Travis and Marguerite McArthur and son, Glenn, granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Muchler of Port- land, and Earl Hennessy of Santa Clara, Calif.
