

Man Meets His Bride
 LANGLOIS — Kenneth Hofsess received his bride, from her home in Kampege, Canada. Hofsess received his discharge from the army in March, and was married early in May, at his bride's home. The young couple returned to Brookings Sunday evening, and will live with his mother, Mrs. Hazel Langlois until they can find living quarters. Hofsess was graduated at Brookings high school and served in the medical corps in the army. He is now driving a logging truck.

After Operation
 LANGLOIS — Many friends and relatives of Port Orford and Sixes attended the graveside services at the Denmark cemetery
