

ANBR Craft Display Will be Shown at Fair

A display of ANBR Craft, made in Brookings, will be on display at the county fair, at Gold Beach on Aug. 30 and 31.

This work, raffia-wrapped glass novelties and other arts, is done by Mrs. Roy Annin and Mrs. Bertha Beers, and the ANBR comes from the first and last letters of each of their names, and becomes the trade name for the goods.

These two ladies have combined their abilities to form this new business. Until Ralph Vincent is located here, sales will be handled by the ladies. After that he will sell it exclusively in his new gift shop, to be started soon.

Local News Items

T. A. Perkins, manager of West Coast Bulb Co-op, of Crescent City, was a visitor here several times the past week on business.

WHAT DOES IT ADD UP TO FOR YOU?

It is doubtful that you could buy an adding machine today, no matter how badly you may need or want one—yet, for only fraction of the cost of an adding machine you can have a rapid calculator, which will do more than an adding machine delivered — within a week.

Lightning Calculator

The Pilot was made local agent Monday, for "The Lightning Portable Adding Machine" for this area. Three are on hand at present, and deliver can be made on orders within ten days to two weeks. Ask for a demonstration.
