

to Move To Siapan Iwo Typhoon Belt

LANGLOIS — Sgt. Loren Sabin, of the 13th Airdrome Squadron, Iowa Jima, writes his parents that they had the exciting experience of a typhoon, making necessary for them to stay in the island for 12 hours, and slow mail services, as it was impossible for planes to land.

In a later letter he wrote: "At first I get to make a move to a little change in scenery, though it is still an isle." Sabin has been on Siapan for the last 14 months and is getting ready to come home.

LANGLOIS NEWS — Walter Sabin took her son home, Monday, to the doctor's attention.

Dr. Leach of Upper Floras was a business visitor at Brookings, Monday.

The Langlois cheese factory sign is getting a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Bill Cope returned home Saturday evening from Keizer hospital at North Bend, where she underwent a major operation, recently.

Vacationed In County For Past 40 Summers

LANGLOIS — Mrs. Fannie Eddy, former resident of this area, is a staunch supporter of Curry county, having spent each summer here for the past 40 years.

She visited friends in the Bandon vicinity before coming here from her home at Monmouth. She is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Donald at Denmark. Her late husband, F. F. Eddy, was editor and publisher of the Port Orford Post for several years.

Returns To Alaska Home

LANGLOIS — Mrs. Fred Brinkman and daughters, Barbara, and Doris, left Wednesday by bus for Seattle, where they had reservations on a plane to Fairbanks, Alaska. From there they went by train to their home at Suntrana, where her husband is employed at the Helifork coal mine.

Display of Color Printing Now Shown At Pilot

Several examples of "big city" printing may be seen at the Pilot office, where samples of letterhead, multi-colored, have been printed. First on the list is a two-tone job, for John Bowdish, for "Lake Earl Gardens," in silver and green. Other style suggestions of the Pilot heading, one used as the mast-head of this issue, may be seen.

Art work for these jobs were drawn by Mrs. Roy Annin, who does that work as a hobby.

Teachers Attend Confab
LANGLOIS — A combined institute will be held at Ashland,

Sept. 9, 10, 11 and 12, with about 800 teachers expected to attend. Lake, Klamath, Josephine, Jackson and Curry counties will be represented.

Couple Wed At Harbor

Ray J. Moore, and Ruby Rodgers, both of Harbor, were married, August 6, by Judge A. E. Sanbo, justice of the peace. Only relatives and intimate friends attended the affair.

The couple will make their home at Harbor.

Mratin Moore Now At Sidney, Australia

A cablegram was received by Mrs. Madge Moore, from her son, Martin, that he has departed for Sidney, Australia, and has gone in to the leather buying and importing business. He will return to the state and will visit his mother. Since his last visit with his parents, he has resided at Honolulu and has been connected with the Kamehameha schools, but resigned last month to go into business for himself.

Burns Were Fatal To Mrs. George Lee, Mon.

Mrs. George Lee, the elderly lady who was badly burned two weeks ago when her butane range exploded at the Chetco Inn, and who has since been in the hospital at Crescent City, died Monday evening, it was learned here on Tuesday.

The elderly couple, living with their son, were alone at the time. They had planned to go to their own home in Idaho.

Funeral arrangements were not learned at the time this paper went to press.

Local News Items

Dr. L. E. Stevenson will leave Monday for Portland, where he will spend his vacation.

Mason and Edwards, local contractors, are overseeing work of putting a new floor under the gymnasium at the local school.

Mrs. Bertha Beers will leave next week on a buying trip to obtain materials for the new concern, ANBR Craft, of which she is a member.

Chetco Rod and Gun Club is planning another shoot, probably in the early part of September. Definite date will be announced later.

At the last meeting of the Rod and Gun Club, Joe Berger resigned as vice-president. Snafu Kemp has been named to succeed Mr. Berger, who is leaving soon for Mt. Vernon, Wash., to live in his crew at Oregon Shipyards.

A group of workers who were came through Brookings, Wednesday,

Monday, to visit Roy Annin.

Joan Byrne was in bed the first of the week with a severe attack of sinus.

New school clothes have been received in considerable quantity by Moore's Variety store this past week, ready for the opening of school. A special advertisement will appear next week.

For better commercial printing try the Pilot. Nothing is impossible in the printing line.

Subscribed to The Pilot today!

EAGLE BILLIARDS NOW OPEN

Pool, Cigarettes, Cigars, Candy

G. E. BELLANT, Proprietor

Templar Hotel Building Brookings, Ore.

FOR YOUR

OIL FURNACE AND STOVE

Installation and Service

Leave Orders For J. W. Evatt

At Chetco Home and Auto Supply Co.

Nook Cafe

Featuring

STEAK DINNERS

—and—

FRESH SEAFOODS

Orders Now Taken For Your GREEN FIR

Slabwood

$10.00 Per Load

—DELIVERED—

Brookings-Harbor Fuel Company
COFFMAN BROTHERS

Leave Orders at Brookings Mill, 1/2-mi. North.

LET ME Build It!

Millwork and Cabinet Shop

Door and Window Frames

FLUSH-TYPE INTERIOR DOORS—

CABINETS A SPECIALTY

We make special size sash, too!

MASON & EDWARDS

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

Box 157

Brookings, Oregon

Public Stenographer

Central Building

Brookings

MILDRED

BYRNE

Notary Public

NOTICE!

Brookings - Harbor residents who wish to come, may do so by going to

A. E. Gallon

Box 511

San Cruz, California

B. & B. Cafe

Open 7:00 a. m. to 11:00 p. m.

DINNERS AND SHORT ORDERS

Seven Days a Week

DORIS BUCHANAN

BERTHA BEERS

Proprietors

SOFT PLANTING STOCK FOR SALE—

Land To Lease On Which To Plant Stock
Come and see the original field of 96 per cent
PURE CROFT!

JOHN W. HOGAN

Brookings, Oregon

WHITE ROCK

Dining Room And Cocketail Lounge

at the

Oregon-California State Line

FEATURING

Dinner Parties

Banquets

BEER BY CASE TO TAKE OUT!

FOR SALE

—SOLVE YOUR HOUSING PROBLEM by buying good two story, 30x56 building and two acres of land with 400 feet frontage on US Highway 101, four miles north of Brookings. Total price less than value of building. See Pete J. Lesmeister Agency.

