

LANGLOIS

CHURCH NOTES

Twenty-five attended Sunday school last Sunday. Mrs. Volck, supt., gave prizes and awards to children who had attended. Chas. Clark won high for the boys and Doreen Walker, high for girls. Certificates were given for perfect attendance. A meeting for Sunday school teachers will be held at the home of Mrs. Volck, Wednesday evening.

NEWLYWEDS CHARIVARIED

A large group of friends and relatives gathered Saturday evening to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hofsess. The young couple treated with a dance at the high school gym.

Other Langlois News—

Mrs. H. O. Eddie of Port Orford was a guest at the Tythcott home, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Satters and granddaughter, Diane, were Port Orford visitors, Saturday.

Shorty Wittman was a business visitor at Port Orford, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Campbell and sons who have been guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Boice, for the past two weeks, left Friday for their home at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Autery and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strain and son were visitors, Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Myers at Port Orford.

Mrs. Ruby E. Hamerly is employed as bookkeeper for Moore's mill at Bandon.

Les Tythcott made a trip to Coquille, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risdon and daughters, of Washington visited at the Slocum home last week. Mrs. Risdon is a niece of Clark and Walter Slocum.

Mrs. Elden White and daughters returned to their home on Langlois Hill Wednesday after spending a week camping near Floras Creek.

Mrs. Don Brooks and infant son went to Grants Pass to visit her mother who is convalescing from appendectomy. She left her two older sons with her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crew have been sawing wood on the Stanley Quigley ranch on Sixes River.

Judge A. H. Boice of Gold Beach visited his family in town, Wednesday.

Among those who attended the show at Bandon Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strain, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson and Jeanette and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jensen and family of Denmark.

Les Tythcott was a Bandon visitor, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins and children and his sister, Miss Agnes Hawkins, of Bandone, were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Autery and Fred Hofsess.

Those who attended Pomona Grange at Chetco, Saturday, from this community were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brookings, Mr and Mrs. Walter Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum and Mr. Fosse of New Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore of Coquille were week-end guests at the Sabin-Thompson cottage at Floras Lake.

Among the local people who fished at Port Orford dock Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Autery, Mr. and Mrs. Art Andropp, Clark Slocum, Ben Johnson, Mr. Hamersley, Mrs. James Brooks and daughter and nephews, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks. Clark Slocum is reported to have had all the luck, getting a big chinook.

James Crew was at Coquille, Monday for dental work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Volck left Sunday after Sunday school to picnic with friends and relatives at Mt. McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cole and daughters of Greshma, spent a week vacationing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Satter on Floras Lake. Mr. Cole is dispatcher for stages at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richards of Lakeville, Indiana, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum the past week.

Mrs. James Cox and daughters and Mrs. Lute Henry and daughter were shopping at Coquille on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Schafer and daughter and Mrs. James Satter of Gresham were week-end guests of Mrs. Schafer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Satter at Floras Lake. Mrs. Schafer is payroll clerk at Gresham Berry Growers and Mr. Schafer is an ACMM of the navy, having served 12 years. He was home on leave, en route to Norfolk, Va., for re-assignment. Diane, their daughter, remained with the grandparents for an indefinite visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gillis and daughters of Lapaz, Indiana, visited at the home of the cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Slocum last week.

Jake White and Will Sabin have been cutting and hauling their winter wood.

Miss Betty Storm was at North Bend Thursday for medical attention.

Jake White, Mrs. Velma Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Moore picnicked on the beaches near Black Lock, Sunday.

Skinny Thorhaven burned his slashing, Sunday, on Morton Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hagen were Friday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lute Henry.

Local News Items

Mrs. R. F. Geiger and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Sorenson, were Eureka visitors, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Merrill and family will move to Portland, their former home, soon. Mrs. Merrill and children plan to depart next week. Mr. Merrill will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner and sons of Galesburg, Ill., were recent visitors of Mossacres, the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moss.

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson, who daughters and Max Pierce of Medford were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brayton the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard James had as guests last week. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Minkler and son, W. Pollett, and Karrold Pollett of Los Angeles. All are relatives of the James.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Kennedy and Mrs. White of Albany were visitors at the Elmer Kennedy home Sunday.

Tommy James returned home, Monday, after a pleasure trip to Astoria and Portland.

Miss Olive Blickenstaff and Miss Gladys Connley of Inglewood, Cal. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiedemann were Thursday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams.