

Langlois Girl Wed To Portlander, August 10

LANGLOIS—August 10, Miss Ruth Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Everest, of this place, became the bride of Donald L. Marlott, of Portland, at a candlelight ceremony at the local Community church, with Rev. E. F. Rosenkilde performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of traditional white satin, with bouffant net overshirt, cut entrain and a finger-tip veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweetpas.

Miss Jean Everest, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and wore a pale pink net dress and carried sweet peas. Judy Jensen, in blue taffeta, was trainbearer.

Ted Marlott, Portland, brother of the groom, was best man and James Everest, the bride's brother, and Glenn Knight of Coquille, were ushers. The wedding music was provided by Miss Gurlah Murphy, soloist, and C. R. Jenson, pianist.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony, with Mrs. H. J. Merz, aunt of the bride, Mrs. C. R. Jenson and Misses Phyllis and Donna Martin and Marilyn Merz, serving.

Following their wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the young couple will be at home at Portland.
