who is visiting them for about ten days.

Mrs. Ellis Garcia returned the first of the week from a month's trip which took her to the family home in Tennessee where her mother is still living. She enjoyed the trip a lot, she said, but remarked that the heat almost got her for three days once.

Miss Mabel Garrard of Los Angeles is spending a five-weeks vacation with her mother, Mrs. Estelle Garrard and her two brothers. She is a member of the cadet nurses corps.

Did you see them on the screen last Sunday and Monday? Of course we mean Andrew and Allie Jackson, in the picture, "God's Country." Seeing Andrew splitting shakes there was as real as life, as it was a good picture of him, but his brother could not be distinguished as well as he was in the background more. We always knew that this area would some day be represented in the films, but never suspected that Andrew and Allie would be the actors. The pictures were taken near Orick, where the men are working in the redwoods.

Friends here have received reports of the recent wedding of Miss Ruth Stewart of Medford to Howard Carl Mason, of Tierman, at Medford, Aug. 17. Mrs. Mason, whose mother is the former Miss Leora Jackson, is a granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Melvin Fitzhugh Sr. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mason plan to attending University of Oregon this fall. Mr. Mason was recently discharged from the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lindsley of Berkeley have returned home after visiting at the home of his father, Lew Frazier for a few weeks.
