

Langlois Schools To Start, Monday

LANGLOIS—Schools will open here, Sept. 16. The high school faculty for the coming year includes Clarence Hagen, principal, with Mrs. Eva Donaldson and Miss Mary Boice. James Crew will again serve as janitor.

Members of the high school board are: H. S. Cadman, Milton Brown, Louis Kreutzer, Lute Henry and Charles Jensen. Clarence Hagen is clerk.

Teachers for the local grade school are: Mrs. Wanda Volck, principal and seventh and eighth grades; Miss Nellie Strain of Bandon, primary room; Mrs. Ruth Murphy of Denmark, third and fourth; and Mrs. Donna Churchill of Port Orford, fifth and sixth grades. Jimmy Heater of Denmark will be janitor and Mrs. Hazel Hofsess, cook.

Hot lunches will again be served to kiddies.

Members of the grade school board are: Archie DeHaven, Chas Jensen and Chas Caughell. Mrs. Lute Henry is clerk.

GRADE SCHOOL BOARD HELD REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the grade school board was held Tuesday at the school, with all members present. Lute Henry acted as the clerk in absence of his wife.

Clifford Sydnam and John Gerber were hired to complete the kitchen and A. E. Volck to install the sink. Jimmy Heater was engaged as janitor to take place of Mrs. Essie Crew who had served the past nine years.

(Correspondent's note: As a parent and taxpayer, I will take this wee space on behalf of all concerned to thank our retiring janitor, Mrs. Crew, for her patient and faithful service.)

Mrs. Kenneth Hofsess, accredited music teacher, will give piano lessons to any student in grade or high school. Those interested are urged to get in touch with her as soon as possible.
