

LANGLOIS

Mrs. Ethelene Thompson

SCHOOL NOTES

Langlois high school opened on Monday with 12 freshmen, nine sophomores, five juniors and ten seniors, making a total of 36.

Clarence Hagen, as principal, will teach general science, geometry, biology, physics and boys physical education; Miss Mary Boice, social economics, world history, Typing, general mathematics and Mrs. Eva Donaldson, three classes of English and home economics.

One hundred and fifteen grade pupils enrolled Monday. Primary classes will open next Monday.

By grades the pupils were enrolled: second, 22; third and fourth, 42; fifth and sixth, 28; seventh and eighth, 20.

The cook shack recently finished and decorated in white with new light fixtures, sink, etc., made a pleasant place for noon relaxation and to enjoy a tasty meal prepared by Mrs. Haze Hofsess.

It has been announced that hot lunches will be 10c a day this year instead of eight, as last.

FLAG RAISED MONDAY

On opening day of school the sixth annual flag-raising was held at the high school with both the grade and high schools, and many local citizens present, under direction of Otto Heckel.

R. T. Moore, Coos county representative, of North Bend, represented Earl Snell's private secretary, Eric Allen. Mr. Heckel also spoke.

Edward Sypher led the flag salute. America was sung by the audience with Wilbur Jensen accompanying on his cornet, with benediction by Rev. Rosenkilde of Bandon.

Immediately following the program the group gathered around the flag pole in front of the high school where the flag was raised by two high school boys.

LILY BUYERS IN VICINITY

Leonard Vaughn and Warren Vaughn, representatives of the Vaughn Seed Co. of Chicago, arrived Saturday and continued the trip to the southern part of Curry county, Monday. During their stay in Langlois they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum and Clark Slocum.

They are working in Curry Co. in connection with the large stock of lily bulbs they are purchasing from growers.

It is announced that shipment will be made on Wednesday, Sept. 18, from the big barn on Brooks place, former Vaughn lily farm, better known as L. C. Berry ranch.
