Bill Ward returned Tuesday evening from Portland, where he had been on a buying expedition. While in the Bay region for the national Legion convention, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Templar plan to visit relatives living in that section of the country.

Eddie Freeman was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party at his home, Sunday.

Homer Kessler, Mildred Byrne, Pete Lesmeister, Hugh Gearin and Elmer Bankus were business visitors at Portland during the past week-end.

Neilon Abbott arrived here on the Monday morning bus to make his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Abbott. He has been in the navy for the past four years and was recently stationed at Charleston, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brayton returned this week from Eugene where they accompanied their son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs. Richard Nelson, who had been visiting here.

Ralph Vincent is in Portland this week, and is expected to return to Brookings Friday, with Mrs. Vincent and daughter.

Francis Hibbard of Medford is in town for a few days visiting friends. He formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd White of Portland are visiting Mrs. Lily Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McGowan of Busns are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith of Harbor. Mrs. McGowan and Mr. Smith are brother and sister.

Mrs. Jessie Wolfe of Ferndale, Washr., was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. J. Ward. Alfred Wolfe, brother of Mrs. Ward, who also arrived this week, will make Brookings his home.

Miss Mary Zenier, Mary Ettlinger, Val Mendenhall and Charles Hassett were at Grants' Pass, on Sunday, attending the rodeo.

titled to have two directors to represent them in the affairs of the Coop and that this matter should be brought to attention of the local people.

We believe all effort should be bent toward obtaining more representation in a matter so vital to the growth and development of our community. Very truly

Editor, Pilot: It has recently come to the attention of the people of this area that we are the largest consumer in the Coos Electric Coop, Inc., but are only represented by one director. Port Orford which runs a close second to the Brookings-Harbor district in consumption of electric power, is also represented by only one director.

We believe that this section, as well as Port Orford, are each en-
