

LANGLOIS

Mrs. Ethelene Thompson
RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Dick Hofsess returned to his home Wednesday from Leep Memorial hospital at Bandon where he had been confined with double fracture of his leg, sustained over a month ago, while assisting at the scene of a wreck on the highway north of Langlois.

While happy to be home, Dick still has leg in a full cast and does not find it easy to get about. He still is under medical care, and must return every few days to Bandon for observation.

GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

Freddie Robins is reported to be ill.

Irene Farries has been out of school all week due to illness.

Mrs. Volck is teaching in the third and fourth grades this week, Mrs. Jean Strain the seventh and eighth. Mrs. Murphy is out because of her father's death.

Watermelon at lunch, Monday! A good joke on Mr. Volck and Mrs. Church. Thanks for the unexpected treat.

CHURCH NOTES

Sunday school is still pretty strong with 36 attending last

Sunday. A new contest is started: Reds and Blue. Come and bring your friends.
