"Belle of the Yukon" Starts Off a Week of Real Pictures Here

"Belle of the Yukon," starring Gypsy Rose Lee, Dolph Scott, and Bob Burns, starts the Friday and Saturday week of good pictures at the Pine Cone Theatre, when the week of good pictures is on. This story, about the gold days of Alaska, rings with the days of that fronting and dancing of that fronting where men were men and women were proud of it. Tomorrow is "Forever," featuring Claudette Colbert, Orson Wells, George Brent, Lucille Watson and Richard Long, comes to the local screen Sunday and Monday, with matinee, Sunday.

This picture was produced with greatest sincerity and integrity. It has merited comment from so many critics, about the time, — the present—when girls of the armed services are looking forward to the time when they can shed the GI and get into mufti.

Waves, Wacs, Spars and Marines are seen in their endeavor to be "The woman they would most like to look like in cavilian clothes." Such is the story.

Teen-agers have their innings this week, too, when "Freddie Steps Out" comes to the screen.

It's a story of a radio crooner who quits his show because he wants a rest, and then goes into hiding. A student at Whitney high school closely resembles the missing crooner, and two mischievous lads decide to get this innocent lad into trouble with his girl by having a note written to the crooner's agent, claiming the crooner is posing as a student at the school. There's confusion—which will be revealed, next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 6.

The Golden Text was, "All that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (I John 2:16).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Consider what I say; and the Lord give the understanding in all things. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:7,15).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We should become more familiar with good than evil, and guard against false beliefs as watchfully as we bar our doors against the approach of thieves and murderers. You must control evil thoughts in the first instance, or they will control you in the second." (p.234)
