Night For Spooks Corny Side Shows! Prizes, and Program! Come, All!

Thrills, excitement and fun! Are you looking for a good time on Hallowe'en? If so, come to the carnival at Brookings High School on Oct. 31, at 8 p. m.

The committee consists of Neil Nelson, Donnie Raymond, Gene Reiling, Merlie Baumgartner, Phyllis Hoffman and Larrie Robinson which has worked diligently for the past two weeks to make this a night of fun. We have spent $250 on prizes and have put in hours of work. Attend and be satisfied.

The seniors haven't done much as yet except to hold regular class meetings. At the first of school these officers were elected:

President—Niel Nelson.
Vice-President—Helen Payne.
Sgt.-at-arms—Ray Foltz.
Secretary and Treasurer—June Hassett.

Reporter—Lois Crook.

Agent for Crown Engravers, of Portland, was here last week. The seniors found it best to order early so that the graduation announcements, name cards, and memory boos will be on the way when due.

The sophomores welcome two newcomers to their class: Wanda Ferguson, recently from Santa Rosa, Calif., and Dale Kinney, of Packwood, Wash. We wish them success here.

Despite the fact that initiations have been pronounced forbidden from now on, the sophomores still had a little fun at the beach party for the student body, Friday evening. After eating and playing games, a group secretly caught the frosh off-guard and gave them a nice smearing up with lipstick. Most of the frosh took it good-naturedly and by now all is forgiven, we hope.

The freshmen, consisting of 25 students, is the largest class in the high school.

Class officers are:
President—Roy Johnson.
Secretary—Margaret Byrne.
Vice-President—Jas. Vincent.
Treasurer—Barbara Kinney.
Sgt.-at-arms—Jimmy Carte.
Reporters—Margaret Byrne and Leta Hassett.

The frosh gave a party for the upper classmen Friday night.

Refreshments consisted of potato salad, coke, and sandwiches. About 50 attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Horner. The party began at 7:00 and ended at 11.

The Serious Side

MARCH OF THE ZOMBIES

We see it every morning, It happens every day. A double file of female clerks Meander on their way. The things that puzzles men And gives the boss gray hairs Is when girls go to powder-room

They always go in pairs. Perhaps the trip is long and so rough.

The hall is dark and lonely, But two by two they always go, To the room: "Ladies Only."

The poor boss stands, and tears his hair,

He's simply torn with grief, The day's production goes to ...

While the girls go on relief.

At one o'clock each afternoon

The march begins once more, What goes on in that front room

That cannot wait till four?

The only way that I can see To make production boom

Is to move the whole office Into the ladies' room!

Junior News

By Larrie Robinson

A class meeting wasn't held Friday as the class had no cause for it.

Peggy Iler enrolled this week as a junior. Welcome, Peggy!

Dorothy Robinson went to Eureka for the week-end. She said she went for a good time.

Those juniors who attended the beach party last Friday report a good time.

Because she is moving to Redding, Calif., Mary Hill has dropped from school here.

Donald Merritt has reported in from his hunting trip, that he has sore feet—but had fun.

Last week, we lost two junior girls—Elaine Ettinger and June Horland, who were married.

Six weeks tests took up the interest of the lass this week.

A class meeting was held Tuesday morning. The party which had been planned, was postponed until after Hallowe'en, as the carnival takes up much of our time.

What They Say:

Sidelights in Brookings anent the world series which ended on Tuesday with a Cardinal victory, drew these remarks from the various people:

Pete Lesmeister: I still say the Red Sox have the best team, but the breaks of the game went to the Cards—but that's baseball.

Mrs. Patrick, at the Nook Cafe: I think the best team won, anyway, they worked for this series.

Ralph Vincent: Two world's records stood before this seventh game. The Red Sox had never lost a world series, and the Cards had never lost a series before, when it went the full seven games. The Cards won because they played the baseball which will win.

B. J. Gould: That's St. Louis for you—they certainly like their baseball, and play it for all it's worth.

Bobby Longacre, at the Nook: I still think that the Cards are just lucky.

Bob Perkins: "ae!"

Norris Kemp more of the

Charles Echols: Those

you'll have to hand it to did play ball, and they cause they put out the best

Gene Gould: Well, you

this way—St. Louis won they won, that's all!

GREYHOUND

When you come to think of it, the friendly confidence people have in Greyhound service is rather an extraordinary thing.

Most experienced travelers have come to look on Greyhound as much more than just another bus line. They know it as a warm, very human, very American transportation service made up of many extra things that make a big difference to the fellow doing the traveling.

The fact is that people like Greyhound because Greyhound likes people. The very heart of Greyhound service is the cheerful, personal interest Greyhound folks take in their passengers.

Greyhound remembers always that its job is to carry people ... not mail, not freight, but people. That's why careful consideration for the welfare of every passenger is the basis of Greyhound policy.

Today, a mother and child, an elderly person, or people who have never traveled before can enter a Greyhound depot and be sure of getting safely, pleasantly to their destinations ... cheerfully cared for all the way by Greyhound.

To GREYHOUND you're a PERSON as well as a passenger.
