You'll Be Expected To Contribute

Some time, soon, solicitation will be made for support of the local Boy Scout troop. Everyone should expect these solicitors and be ready to contribute any convenient sum.

Scout activities call for money, despite the fact that most of the work and effort are gratis. In this area a sum of $300 to $400 is necessary to carry out the program laid down by national Scout executives, who have always placed needs low.

Properly carried on, Scouting is the greatest movement in the world today. This doesn't mean the Boy Scouts alone, but Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls as well. Contributions toward these causes is the greatest insurance policy for future generations. Put in a $10 bill, then come out occasionally to a Scout meeting. Boys enjoy having adults in the audience.

He Certainly Was a Leader Of Boys

This thought is a farewell to a young man whom this community will lose shortly—Larry Metler, scoutmaster.

Perhaps to many of the citizenry, Larry is just another person, but to a group of Boy Scouts, he has been a "big brother," a friend without equal, their "buddy" who really "understands."

There's no way to explain it, but a scout master holds a "certain place" in a boy's life. A scout master learns from the lips of boys secrets which they would not tell even to their mothers or fathers.

There never lived a man who could not be replaced. Certainly there are hundreds of scout masters in the world, with more to come, but for many of those boys who started scouting under Larry, there'll never be another pal quite like him. He certainly rates it.

It was refreshing, Monday evening, to see Larry with the present his troop gave him—an electric razor. Money couldn't buy that remembrance from him, even long after its usefulness is gone.

Carnival Set By H. S. For Oct. 31

Under auspices of a committee composed of Niel Nelson, Donnie Raymond, Gene Reiling, Merlie Baumgartner, Phyllis Hoffman and Larrie Robinson, a carnival will be staged at the high school on Oct. 31, at 8 p. m.

According to these committee members, fun will be rampant, and prizes will be given at end of each event.

Coming Events

Set Your Calendar By These—

October 18—Meeting, for re-organization of Brookings-Harbor Volunteer Fire Department, to form Rural Fire Protection District. At high school at 8 p. m.

November 14. Azalea Garden Club. Mrs. W. E. Wilhelm, president of state garden clubs, will be guest speaker.

(All organizations are requested to keep the Pilot posted, concerning all coming meetings, that a date may be carried. Mail all information in, giving schedule).

Local News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leming of Cave Junction are spending some time in this vicinity, until lily planting is over.

Louis Sparling has moved his house, on the Vernon Hanscam place at Harbor, up to the Dale Bravo ranch where he will make his home. When Louis spent so much time making his house with the sides bolted together so that it could be moved, Harbor residents watched the proceedings with skeptical eyes, but saw the ease and dispatch with which the small building was dismantled and moved. Louis was wiser than a few gave him credit.

The Chetco river has been a popular place this week as the fish are biting. Up-to-date reports say Chinook haven't come in except in small numbers, but fishermen are catching Jacks and Silversides, up to 15-lb. Many of the bulb growers who are working like made to get their crops in the ground before fall rains, are sick because they have to work, instead of fishing (who can really blame them?).
