

League Was Started At H. S.

By Larrie Robinson
 The girls league was started at the beginning of school, but the reports have done a poor job of it. The girls league consists of all in the high school and the are:
 President—Merlie Baumgartner
 President — Joanie Mac-
 Secretary—June Hassett.
 Treasurer—Patty Braun.
 Porters—Phyllis Hoffman & Robinson.
 Wait-arms — Dorothy Robinson for the girls league is to fix up the girls room, and reasons. The girls gave the refreshments on the first night, and asked for a silver. The girls will also have booths at the coming carnival, Oct. 31. Meetings will be held when school and will be kept in good. Most of the girls are interested in getting the girls room as three showers are not set for 40 girls. Also the wish to make the room more pleasing.

A meeting was held Tuesday during girls physical education class when it was decided to have shelves made for the girls room. On the committee so see about this work are Patty Braun, Lois Ann Miller, Nettie Raymond and Larrie Robinson. A cot will be donated by Ruth Hassett.

Nazi Convicts Met Death By Hanging

To the ex-GI who saw his pal fall, or saw those white crosses in Europe, the executions of the 11 top Nazis Wednesday morning was one score that they did not have to settle. Their comments were such that would give assent to the convictions.

Legally right or wrong, the world did not frown upon the executions which (Pacific standard time—began late Tuesday evening) Wednesday morning saw the hangman's rope worked for almost a whole day.

With Hitler, these men were certainly the cause, directly and indirectly, responsible for the late world war, and much of the conditions in the world today.

Justice Court

In the justice of the peace court during the past week, the following cases came up:

David Arthur Collins, of Phoenix, Ariz., was bound over to the district court under $2000 bond for burglary of H. W. Axford home. Milton Edward Potocnick and William P. Clement were fined for passing another car without proper clearance.

Vernon N. Ireton failed to stop at a stop sign. Frank H. Sues and Alice F. Foley, both of Lane county, were married Saturday by Justice of the Peace A. E. Sandbo.
