

Wedding Held At Smith River M. E. Church, Saturday

Newlyweds Will Live at Lafayette, Ore.; Hallowe'en Enjoyed

Too Late For Last Week

SMITH RIVER—Wedding bells rang at the Smith River Methodist church, Saturday, Nov. 2, at high noon, when Mrs. Laura Rowley and Sern Christensen exchanged marriage vows, with E. C. Hicks, pastor, officiating in presence of relatives.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leafy greenery. Preceding ceremony, Miss Betty Moore played "Always," accompanied at piano by Mrs. R. D. Rowley, who also played the wedding music.

The bride chose for her wedding costume a gray tailored suit with blue hat and blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her daughter, Earl Reinhart, as matron of honor, who wore a black afternoon dress, with black accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations and fern.

was best man. Following the ceremony, congratulations were extended to the newlyweds, and a wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rowley.

The rooms at the Rowley home were attractively decorated with autumn flowers. A beautifully decorated wedding cake, topped with miniature bridal couple, was cut by the bride and groom, and served to guests.

Following a wedding trip in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Christenson will make their home at Lafayette, Oregon, former home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rowley.

Among the guests present at the wedding were the bride's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reinhart and three children of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ussell and daughter, Florence Rof Myrtle Point, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Medford, Ore., Charles Drake of Brookings, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rowley and daughter, and Rev. E. C. Hicks of this place.

Ladies Aid Met Thursday

The ladies aid group held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the community hall. Mrs. R. D. Rowley, devotional chairman, put on an interesting program, pertaining to Week of Prayer, with missionary readings by members. Following the session sandwiches and coffee were served by Mrs. Jessie Lessard. The table and mantle were decorated with pumpkins and Hallowe'en motifs.

Hallowe'en Party Enjoyed

A Hallowe'en party was held at the community hall, Hallowe'en evening for school children, their parents and friends. The hall was decorated with pumpkins and other Hallowe'en motifs. The affair was sponsored by the teachers of the local school: Mrs. Ina Johnson and Mrs. Juanita Harris. Games and a lively time was enjoyed. Mrs. William Hall assisted with the games or the older children in the main hall and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich took care of the pre-school children in the club rooms. At the close of the evening, ginger bread, cookies, cider and doughnuts were enjoyed.
