

Hoop Game Billed Friday Evening

The 1946-47 basketball season gets under way, Friday evening when Brookings High meets the Ophir High aggregation on the local floor. Game time is set for 7:30.

Little is known of the relative strength of either team, as this is the first game in league competition this year. However, the local lads, under guidance of Art Guthrie, hope to make a creditable showing.

Azalea Club Due Nat'l Recognition

According to word received by Mrs. Mabel McVay, president of Azzalea Garden Club, Mrs. Walter Wilhelm, president of state federation of Garden Clubs, the Azalea Garden Club is in line for membership award from the national federation of garden clubs.

The membership of Azalea Garden club reached 91—one of the largest, if not the largest club, in the state. Membership is based on the ration of population of the town or community.

However, the dues of 20 or more of these members are in arrears. That being the case, they
