Funeral services were held at Smith River cemetery Monday afternoon for Mrs. Carrie Johnson, who died at Klamath Falls last Wednesday after an illness of several months. Mrs. Johnson of Harbor, had visited her mother of Mrs. Grace Johnson several times and was well-known by many local people. Rev. Dunham officiated at the funeral services, attended by a number of friends of the Edward-Johnson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Trombley and Mrs. Dick were recent Harbor residents, being former residents of Astoria. They told friends that they plan to leave this Wednesday in company with Mr. and Mrs. E. X. Kendall, also of Fort Dick, for a trip to southern California, the Trombleys planning to continue on to Tucson, Arizona, to spend the winter months. Both families have well-equipped trailer coaches for the trip.

Mervin Hanscam returned to Eugene Sunday where he is registered at the University of Oregon, after spending Thanksgiving at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscam Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Christensen and family left last week for Montrose, Calif., where they plan to remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Dorothy Ray is visiting at the Ed Jordan home at Ferndale for a few weeks. Mr. Jordan is her uncle.
