

TEEN TIME

The time has come the walrus said to talk of many things. Of sailing ships, and ceiling wax, and cabbages and kings. Of high school news, and my own views, and other trivial things.

Such as fish. How many of you like fish? You do. Well then how many of you like fish well enough to pay $25 for a string of them? You wouldn't. Mr. Horner did. It is quite possible that he didn't even get to keep the fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Struebing and daughter, Marilyn, were visitors in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bates and children Barbara and Bob were visitors in Klamath Falls last week. Patti and Charlotte were visitors of Mrs. Landauer and children in Portland last week.

Miss Irene Johnston was a visitor at the Gardner Ranch on Pistol River during the Thanksgiving vacation.

At a combined party and business meeting and last Monday evening the Baptist Community Youth Fellowship club decided that the fact that it was strictly a community club would be more strongly emphasized from now on. It was also decided that a membership would be maintained instead of just anybody welcome anytime they feel like dropping in.

A community study group for young people has been organized by the Star of the Sea parish. At the first meeting, last Sunday, the following officers were elected. Tony Felipe, president, Gene Reiling, Vice-president, and Norma Felipe, treasurer. Meetings will be held Sunday evenings at 7:00 o'clock under the guidance of Father Kelly, at various members homes. Everyone is urged to attend.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the regular Relief Society meeting of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, held at the home of Violet Hammer, at Rivers End. The lesson on theology was given by Violet Hammer to 14 present, including two missionaries, Elders Brown and Anderson, and Pres. Geo. Baxter, and Ira Brown. Following the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bingham and son entertained with a key dinner. The next meeting the group will be held at Mr. Baxter's home, when pot dinner will be served.
