March of Dimes Dance Scheduled for Saturday

The Strong Will Dance That The Weak May Walk." Slogan Adopted Locally By Chetco Post, No. 138, Sponsors

The Strong Will Dance That The Weak May Walk," is the slogan adopted by the Chetco Post, No. 138, sponsors of the forthcoming March of Dimes dance, to be held Saturday evening at the high school gym. Originally the dance was scheduled for the large hall at Harbor.

will contribute much to the rehabilitation of thousands who suffer from paralysis; and the research made possible by these funds will help in finding the cause and cure. I should like to urge that all Oregonians cooperate fully in this fine humanitarian cause."

Governor Earl Snell has designated Monday, Jan. 27, as March of Dimes Day in Oregon and has urged on all residents of the state to contribute toward the campaign fund of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in the fight against the dread disease. He said:

Started in the early '30s by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a victim of this disease, the movement has gained momentum until it has become almost universal in appeal.

The fight against infantile paralysis will not be completely won until every trace of this crippling disease has been eradicated from this country. This is far in the future.

Through these funds, half of which remain in the county in which collected, many children have been treated at no expense to parents who could not afford such expensive care.

But the day when poliomyelitis will be vanquished can be fought closer by our contributions to the fight which is being waged against this menace.

Through treatment many of the stricken bodies are brought back to health, are taught to be useful citizens and self-supporting as their fellow-man.

Lives broken by infantile paralysis are among our greatest tragedies. The help we give now

Much advance has been made in the cure of the disease, but little progress has been in made toward determining the cause.

Toward this goal all people are urged to give generously.

Radio To Feature Local "Weather"

Local growers were especially pleased, Sunday night to hear, over radio station KIEM, Eureka, the first weather report for this area. Saturday, a news release appearing in the Oregonian, under Washington date-line, read:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24—Local weather forecasts will be made available immediately for radio broadcast to lily growers in Curry county, Oregon, the commerce department informed Senator Guy Cordon, Republican, Oregon.

As temporary measure, the forecasts are to be prepared by the weather bureau at San Francisco. The department has requested a survey to determine the practicability of a forecast by its Eureka station and told Cordon it was "sure satisfactory arrangements could be worked out."

"Spider" Clement, returned to this area, Saturday after three weeks spent at Burlingame, California and other points. At Burlingame, he visited his sister, Mrs. Nellie Thomas, and from there, went to Hayward, San Francisco and Santa Cruz. Spider's only comment was: "Gosh, but it was good to get away from that awful fog."

Mrs. Patrick Did Not Believe Eyes

What a chicken would need with two gizzards is something Mrs. C. I. Patrick, manager of the Nook Cafe, is wondering about.

Last Saturday afternoon, while preparing chickens for Sunday dinner, she came across this freak of nature.

To prove she had something for Ripley, she called in a number of people, including the editor of the Pilot, to view it.

Each gizzard seemed to be of normal size, were attached by "Y" shaped tube, similar to one which a plumber might use in dividing a water line. This double gizzard did not change the taste of the chicken, however.

New Fountain Will Match Big City's Best

People of this area are being amazed, after getting a peek at the new fountain at the Vincent building, by the "big-city" service which they soon will take as commonplace.

The interior, finished in natural birch, and mahogany, is about the latest in fountain equipment, according to Mr. Vincent, who said he hoped to have the best outside of metropolitan areas.

In addition to the fountain, there will be a reception room, where private parties may be accommodated.

Local Electrical Business Makes An Expansion

California Man Buys Interest In Brookings Electric and Radio Co.

In keeping pace with the progress and industry of this community, Brookings Electric and Radio Co., owned and operated by V. A. Mendenhall Sr., last week embraced a partner in the person of W. E. Wolfe, formerly of San Jose, Calif., brother of Virgil Wolfe, well known in this area.

These men plan an extensive expansion project, in a new location, which will include a complete line of industrial and domestic electric supplies and appliances.

In telling the Pilot of their plans, they revealed that supplies would be coming to them in a lot larger quantities shortly.

With this assurance, these partners appeal to the community to come in, to get acquainted with the new member of the firm, and to inspect their stock, and new goods, already received.

Shipment of shoes, which came in late last week to Brookings Shoe Service, are on the shelves, that is, those which have not been sold. Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement telling of some of the numbers in stock.

Brookings Shows Might; Ophir Loses All Games

High School Teams Assumed Roles of Giant Killers, Friday Evening; The "Ramrods" Made It Three-in-Row

Brookings High School, tired of being "pushed around" on the maple courts, came out of its lethargy, Friday with vengeance and tipped over the much-favored Ophir quintet, 31 to 28 in a torrid battle. Paced by Neal Nelson with 10 and Tony Felipe with nine, Brookings gained revenge for an earlier defeat at the hands of Ophir on the local court.

Ramrods Win Easily, Too

Chetco Rod & Gun Club's renowned "Ramrods" defeated the Ophir Independents easily by the score of 52 to 41. Reagan was high point man with 11, followed by Guthrie with 10, Matson with 9 and Musser with 7.

Volleyball And Seconds Win

There was nothing short of decisive the way the Brookings volleyball girls treated their host team of the evening, winning by a large margin.

The "b" squad of the high school had no trouble in winning its game from Ophir.

Box score of the high schools:

Brookings—31	Ophir—28
Felipe, 9	C. Brewer, 6
Reiling, 4	Burns, 8
Nelson, 10	Moore, 5
Church, 6	J. Brewer, 8
Foltz, 2	Nowlin, 1

Festival Assn Must Raise Large Sum To Cover Plans

Smith River Hall Is Necessary To Hold Expected Crowds

People of this area are reminded that the first Azalea Festival dance will be held, March 1, at Smith River Community hall, with Eddie Desjardin's orchestra furnishing the music. The second dance to raise funds, will be held at the same place on April 5.

To explain reason for holding two dances at Smith River, the Festival association wishes to clear up any misunderstanding which may come. In the first place, local dance halls are too small to accommodate the crowds wanted at these two initial dances because, under present plans, a large amount of money will be necessary to carry out plans for the 1947 Festival.

To give this forthcoming function the proper advertising due such an occasion, the court must be sent to other towns where any event of similar nature will be held. This plan will include the Rose Festival at Portland, Taft Redhead celebration, probably at Pendleton Round-up, as well as nearby affairs. The court will be furnished gowns for the occasion, and all this costs money.

To reciprocate for all this, the court of other various celebrations will be expected here at the Azalea Festival, thus making the event more widespread in scope.

With princesses to be chosen from other high schools along the coast in close proximity, the local festival will gain more interest among the neighboring towns.

However, after the two large dances, where it is hoped large sums may be realized, the queen selection dance, as well as the coronation ball, will be held at the local high school gymnasium, with both of these coming just shortly before the festival.

To gain the recognition due such an affair, much advertising must be done, and all this costs money.

Court House News

Through courtesy of Hugh C. Gearin, district attorney, the Pilot was able to gain a little news from the court house this week, which includes:

Suit was filed in district court by Joseph Holt, versus Floyd Holt with Herbert Dewart as attorney for plaintiff.

A marriage license was issued to Lyle Redfield Jr. and Ruth Rau, both of Brookings.

Proposed house bill 72, to amend Section 1, Chapter 243, Oregon Law, 1945, will raise the salaries of Curry county officers: Judge from $2070 to $2400 per year.

County commissioners from $8.63 per day to $10.00, while on the job.

Assessor, from $2070 to $2400.

Treasurer from $1725 to $2000.

Clerk from $2070 to $2400.

Sheriff from $2070 to $2400.

Supt. of Schools from $1863 to $2150.

This is just temporary measure, since it is proposed legislation.

Local News Items

Sheriff W. G. Sabin, of Gold Beach was a business caller in this area, Tuesday. While here he appointed M. E. Nicodemus as deputy sheriff for this end of the county.

When high winds, Monday evening whipped power lines about in town, a fuse was blown in a couple of transformers, thus depriving part of the town of current for a few hours late in the night. Power was restored early Tuesday when fuses were installed at these transformers.
